A letter exceeding the weight of 12 oz. is liable to a postage of 1d. for every ounce, beginning with the first ounce. A letter, for example, weighing between 14 and 15 ounces must be prepaid fifteen pence.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; and a letter posted insufficiently prepaid is chargeable with double the deficiency. On re-directed letters the charge for re-direction is the same, whether prepaid or collected on delivery.

No letter may exceed the dimensions of one foot six inches in length, nine inches in width, and six inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from one of the Government offices.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN LETTERS.

To some countries the whole of the postage cannot be prepaid; and in such cases the letter 'a' is prefixed to the rates of postage, to indicate that an additional charge is made on delivery.

A letter posted unpaid, or paid only in part, directed to go by a route by which prepayment is compulsory, is returned to the writer, unless there is another route to send it by which prepayment is not required. Letters, however, for Australia and New Zealand, if prepaid as much as one rate (even though the prepayment be insufficient), are forwarded, charged with the deficient postage and an additional rate.

The same rates are chargeable in this country upon unpaid or insufficiently paid letters received from the above-named places, with the exception that letters from Alexandria, Cairo, and Suez, received via Southampton, and letters for China, and from Holland via France, are charged the prepaid rate only.

No letter for any colony or foreign country may be above two feet in length, or one foot in width or depth.

Letters not specially directed by a particular route are forwarded by the route immediately following the name of the place in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage:

Exceptions.—I. Letters for Aden, Alexandria, Cairo, India, and Suez, are sent by the first mail despatched by British packet; letters for Borneo, Ceylon, China, Japan, Java, Labuan, Penang, Philippine Islands, and Singapore, are sent by first packet, whether British or French, according to the route indicated by the postage; letters for Malta are sent by the first mail despatched, if the prepayment does not indicate that they are to be sent by another route.

II. Letters for Canada (if not registered) posted after the despatch by Canadian packet on Thursday, are forwarded via the United to which prepayment is optional is sent forward charged; the value of the stamps, however, being, as a rule, taken into account; but in some cases partial prepayment is not recognised.

The following charges are made on delivery at the under-mentioned places upon letters posted unpaid (wholly or in part):—

States on Saturday. Registered letters, if not fully prepaid to be sent via the United States, are detained till the next Canadian packet.

III. Letters for the Argentine Confederation, Guadaloupe, and Martinique, are, if prepaid, sent in the first mail despatched by British or French packet after the time of posting; and letters for Cuba and Mexico are, if prepaid, sent in the mail via France, if such be the first mail.

IV. Letters for Switzerland are forwarded via France when that route is indicated by the amount of prepaid postage.

Letters for Brazil, Monte Video, and Chili, if specially directed 'by Supplementary Mail via Bordeaux or Lisbon,' and posted in time for despatch from London by the day mail of Friday, will in due course overtake, at Bordeaux or Lisbon, the packet despatched from Liverpool on the previous Wednesday. The postage via Bordeaux is 1s. per  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz., and via Lisbon 1s. 3d. per  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.

Letters for such places in Turkey and Asia Minor as have no Austrian Post Office should be addressed to the care of an agent residing in the nearest port at which an Austrian Post Office has been established. It is recommended also that any letters for Erzeroum and other parts of the interior of Armenia, or for Persia, be addressed to the care of some agent at Samsoun or Trebizond, to be forwarded to their destination.

Letters for Russia should have the name of the town added in either English, French, or German; and if for the smaller towns in Russia, they should bear as a part of their address the name of the province or government in which they are situated.

Letters addressed to officers and seamen serving on board ships of war on foreign or colonial stations are forwarded according to information furnished by the Admiralty.

CARD POST.

Post Cards, whether official or private, which bear a halfpenny impressed stamp, are available for transmission between places in the United Kingdom only.

The front (or stamped) side is intended for the address only. There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it, nor must there be any writing or printing across the stamp. On the reverse side any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, Post Cards may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

No card other than one of those issued by the Government, or a private card impressed with the halfpenny stamp, will pass under a halfpenny stamp, if it bear on it a written communication of the nature of a letter.

For information as to the conditions under which private cards are impressed with a halfpenny stamp, application must be made to the office of Inland Revenue.

INLAND NEWSPAPERS.

Under the Post Office Act, 1870, any publication fulfilling the conditions hereafter named can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office to pass within the United Kingdom as a newspaper for a postage of one halfpenny. Without such registration no newspaper is entitled to be sent through the post at less than the book rate of postage.

Registration for inland circulation includes registration for transmission abroad.

The conditions are as follows:—

1. The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

2. It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days, and must be printed on a sheet or sheets unstitched.

3. The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to 'Tables of Contents' and 'Indices.'

4. A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or on a piece or pieces of paper, unstitched; or wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the newspaper. The supplement must in every case be published with the newspaper, and must have the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of every page; or, if it consist of engravings, prints, or lithographs, at the top of every sheet or side.

For each newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a book packet of the same weight—viz. one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or fraction of 2 oz.

A newspaper posted unpaid, and a packet of newspapers posted either unpaid or insufficiently paid, will be treated as an unpaid or insufficiently paid book packet of the same weight.

The postage must be prepaid either by an adhesive stamp or by the use of a stamped wrapper.

No newspaper can be sent through the post a second time for the original postage; for each transmission a fresh postage must be prepaid, except that in the case of re-direction the amount chargeable may be collected on delivery.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of easy removal for examination. If this rule be infringed, the newspaper or packet will be treated as a letter.

Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily inspected.

A newspaper posted singly, or a packet of newspapers, which contains any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it, is charged as a letter, unless the enclosure be such as might be sent at the book rate of postage, and the entire packet be sufficiently prepaid as a book packet, in which case it is allowed to pass.

A newspaper which has any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written in it or upon its cover, will be charged as an unpaid or insufficiently paid letter.

No packet of newspapers must exceed 14 lbs. in weight, nor may it exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN NEWSPAPERS.

The rates of postage to the colonies and foreign countries on newspapers registered for transmission abroad will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage. Each newspaper is liable to a separate rate of postage, whether sent singly or in a packet; and if above 4 oz. in weight, it is liable to two rates of postage.

The conditions of registration for transmission abroad are the same as those for inland transmission; excepting that for foreign transmission a newspaper may be published at intervals of thirty-one days; and that it may be printed (but not its supplement) on sheets stitched together. Moreover, 'prices current' and 'market reports,' but not private price-lists or trade catalogues, are admitted to the same privileges as newspapers for foreign transmission, provided they are published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days.

Publications registered for transmission abroad must be posted within eight days from the date of publication, including the day of publication.

The collected numbers issued during the month of a weekly, fortnightly, tri-monthly, etc., publication will not be allowed to pass as a monthly publication.

The postage must be prepaid with postage labels only.

Every newspaper or packet of newspapers must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of easy removal for examination.

Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily inspected.

No newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, may contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it.

There must be no writing or other mark on a newspaper sent abroad but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it, and words indicating the date on which the subscription to the newspaper will end.

No packet of newspapers must exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth. For limit of weight, see table of Colonial and Foreign rates.

It is forbidden to introduce into Russia, through the post, political newspapers, in covers open at the ends or sides; and the only means by which persons residing in Russia can obtain newspapers from the United Kingdom is by subscribing for them at one of the Russian Post Offices. This prohibition does not, however, extend to political newspapers, or any other publication, addressed to members of the Royal Family of Russia, the Imperial Ministers, or members of the Diplomatic Corps. The admission into Russia even of newspapers not of a political character, is permitted only when they are addressed to the house of some established bookseller, to the higher schools, to the Imperial Public Library, or to the Academy of Sciences in Russia. Printed prices current, however, as well as printed circulars, in covers open at the ends or sides, are allowed to be addressed to any persons residing in Russia.

INLAND BOOK POST.

A book packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications (including printed or lithographed letters), photographs (when not on glass or in cases containing glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon; and the books or other publications, prints, maps, etc., may be either printed, written, engraved, lithographed, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, etc., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, etc., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens or pencils in the case of pocket-books, etc., and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto; but the binding, rollers, etc., must not be sent as a separate packet.

Circulars—i.e. letters which are intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or the greater part of which is printed, engraved, or lithographed—may also be sent by book post.

The postage is one halfpenny for every two ounces or fraction of that weight.

A packet posted wholly unpaid will be charged with double the book postage; and if posted partially prepaid, with double the deficiency.

The postage must be prepaid either by adhesive stamps or by means of a stamped wrapper, or by a combination of the two; except at the General Post Office, Edinburgh, where from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. it may be prepaid in money, provided the postage amount to not less than 41 in any one case, and provided the packets are posted in bundles each representing a postage of 5s.

Every book packet must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, and in such a manner as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it will be treated as a letter.

A book packet may not contain any letter, or communication of the nature of a letter (whether separate or otherwise), not being a circular letter or not wholly printed, nor any enclosure sealed or in any way closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not allowed. (Entries, however, merely stating who sends the book, etc., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.) If this rule be infringed, the entire packet will be charged as a letter.

No book packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, or one foot six inches in length, nine inches in width, and six inches in depth.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, etc., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, book-packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN BOOK POST.

The rates of postage on book packets to the colonies and foreign countries are given in the two following tables, as also in the Table of Colonial and Foreign postage.

Every book packet must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string.

The limit of size for a book packet addressed to any place abroad is 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

Exceptions.—No packet for Algeria, Azores, Cape de Verd Islands, France, Maderia, or Portugal, or for Egypt, Syria, or Turkey, when sent by French packet, must be above 18 inches in length, width, or depth.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

There is a Pattern and Sample Post to such colonies and foreign countries as are marked in the Table of Colonial and Foreign postage with the letter 'P'; but it is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandîse. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, are not admissible.

The rates of postage will be found in the Table of Colonial and Foreign postages.

Patterns or Samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind,—but such articles only,—may be posted enclosed in boxes or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened; or, in the case of samples of seeds, etc., for the United States of America, Holland and its possessions, Belgium, Denmark, Greece, Portugal and its possessions, and Switzerland, in bags entirely closed, provided such closed bags are transparent, so as to enable the Officers of the Post Office readily to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles.

A packet of patterns or samples sent to Portugal, Madeira, the Azores, Cape de Verds, France, or to Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, by French packet, must not exceed 18 inches in length, width, or depth; a packet to any other place abroad must not exceed 24 inches in length or 12 inches in breadth or depth.

Samples of intrinsic value must not be sent to foreign countries except the United States; and in the case of France, samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, saffron, carmine, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule, if they weigh more than three ounces. Raw and spun silk, as well as coloured and twisted silk, may be sent to Germany up to the same weight.

Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to the following countries, but to these alone; viz., the Azores, Belgium, Cape de Verd Islands, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Madeira, Moldavia, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, United States, Wallachia, and the British Colonies; and not even to these places when addressed 'via France.' Indigo cannot be sent to any place abroad.

A packet of patterns or samples sent to the Azores, Cape de Verd Islands, France, Madeira, Portugal, or by French packet to Turkey, Syria, or Egypt, must not exceed 18 inches in length, width, or depth; a packet to any other place abroad must not exceed 24 inches in length or 12 inches in width or depth.

The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars, see page

SPECIAL RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

ADDRESSES TO THE QUEEN, AND PETITIONS TO PARLIAMENT.

Petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, for forwarded direct, are exempt from postage; and such petitions and addresses, as also petitions to either House of Parliament, if sent to a member of either House, are likewise exempt, provided they do not weigh more than two pounds, and are without covers, or in covers open at the sides. No letter or other enclosure, however, must be inserted; and if one be found, such enclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, is charged as an unpaid letter.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the rate of  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every two ounces or fraction of that weight.

The words PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS must be written or printed on the cover of the packet; otherwise it is treated as an ordinary book packet.

Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and if it be made in part, the simple difference only is charged.

Parliamentary proceedings may be sent, under the book post privilege, to all the colonies, and to those foreign states between which and this country there is a book post.

The limit of size prescribed for ordinary book packets does not apply to printed Parliamentary proceedings.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

Parliamentary notices may be forwarded through the post under the following regulations:—

The words 'Parliamentary Notice' must be legibly printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such parliamentary notice should also be legibly printed or written on the face of the letter; though this is not imperative.

These notices must be posted at the General Post Office in Edinburgh.

All notices which, by the standing orders of either House of Parliament, are required to be served on or before the 15th December, must be posted not later than the 12th December, unless the 12th fall on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 11th; but those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted at least three clear days before the time specified in the standing orders.

The postage chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of 6d. on each, must be prepaid by stamps.

The notices must be posted at the Post Office window, accompanied with duplicate lists of the addresses; the notices being arranged, for the convenience of comparison, in the order of the list. These lists will be examined by the officer in attendance at the window; and if they correspond with the addresses, he will sign and stamp every sheet of each list. One of the duplicate lists will then be returned to the person who brought the letters, and the other forwarded to the Secretary, General Post Office, London.

The hours for receiving such notices are the same as those for the registry of ordinary letters, unless they be presented at such a time as to interfere with the other duties of the office; in which case the postmaster may appoint any other time within the next twenty-four hours for receiving the same, provided that, when the notices are to be served on or before the 15th December, such arrangement do not delay the posting beyond the 12th. Re-directed parliamentary notices are, like letters, liable to an additional rate of postage.

The senders of parliamentary notices should, if possible, arrange on the previous day with the postmaster as to the most convenient time for posting them, and state the probable number.

LETTERS FOR NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND SEAMEN IN HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

Non-commissioned officers, bandmasters, army schoolmasters (not being superintending schoolmasters or schoolmasters of the 1st class), schoolmistresses, private soldiers, or seamen belonging to Her Majesty's ships, whether serving on sea or land, and whether in a British possession or foreign country, as also enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive letters by packet or man-of-war, for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country, they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus, the postage to the under-mentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:

| To or from—                                                                                          | s. | d. |

| Malta, via Italy . . . . .                                                                    | 0  | 3  |
| " via Marseilles . . . . .                                                                    | 0  | 4  |
| Chili, Peru, or any other place in the SouthPacific, via Southampton and Panama . . . . . | 0  | 2  |
| Canada, via United States . . . . .                                                           | 0  | 2  |

The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer, viz. assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter, the privilege not extending to these officers.

If the letter be posted within the United Kingdom, the penny must be prepaid, as must any foreign postage that may be chargeable; and if sent by a private ship, the gratuity of one penny to the captain must also be prepaid. If posted abroad, prepayment is not compulsory; but if the letter be sent unpaid, it is on delivery charged twopence, together with any foreign postage or gratuity to a sea captain that may be due.

The letter must not weigh more than half an ounce.

It must relate entirely to the private concerns of the soldier or seaman.

The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction, and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

SEAMEN.

From A. B., Seaman, H.M.S. _____

(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)

C. D., Captain (or other Commanding Officer),
H.M.S. _____

To A. B.,

Seaman, H.M.S. _____

(Here the direction of the letter to be finished.)

SOLDIERS.

From A. B., Sergeant, etc., — Regt. _____

(Here the direction of the letter to be inserted.)

C. D., Colonel (or other Commanding Officer),
Regt. _____

To A. B.,

Private (or Sergeant, Corporal, etc.) — Regt. _____

(Here the direction to be finished.)

If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom for a place abroad, unpaid or insufficiently paid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not written in the address, it will be detained, and returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

Letters for seamen on board Her Majesty's ships stationed at a foreign port should not be addressed to the care of the British Consul at that port, or to any agent on shore, as the privilege enjoyed by seamen, of receiving their letters through the post at reduced rates of postage, is confined to such letters as are addressed directly to them. All letters directed to the care of any other person are liable to the ordinary rate of postage; and in those cases where prepayment is necessary, they will be detained if such ordinary rate be not prepaid. The same rule is applicable to letters for non-commissioned officers in the army, schoolmasters, if not of the first class, schoolmistresses, and private soldiers.

LETTERS FOR PASSENGERS ON BOARD MAIL PACKETS.

Letters for passengers on board the Cunard and Inman packets for America touching at Queenstown, or on board the Mediterranean packets about to sail from Southampton with the mails for India, Australia, China, etc., or on board the Canadian packets touching at Londonderry, may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received.

The letters must be registered, and should be addressed thus: 'Mr. _____, on board the mail packet at Queenstown [Londonderry or Southampton], care of the commander of the packet.'

Letters for passengers by the Canadian packets touching at Londonderry must be addressed to the 'care of the Officer in charge of the mails.'

Letters directed to the care of the Packet Agent at Suez, and despatched by the mail via Brindisi, which follows the mail via Southampton, will probably reach passengers for India, etc., who have sailed in the packet from Southampton.

LETTERS BY PRIVATE SHIPS.

Letters intended to be sent by private ship must be addressed 'By Private Ship;' and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a private ship to Belgium, Belize, British North America, United States, and the British West Indies, is 3d. not exceeding  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz., and 3d. is charged in the case of heavy letters for every additional  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.; to the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, St Helena, and Ascension, the postage is 4d. not exceeding  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz., and 4d. is charged for every additional  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.; to France, 3d. is charged for every  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.; to Norway, every  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. 3d.; Holland, 8d., not exceeding  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.; in all other cases the single rate is 6d., and the postage for heavy letters progresses in the same manner as the postage of letters sent by mail packets. Letters may be sent unpaid to the following places, viz.: Azores, Belgium, Belize, British West Indies, Canada, Cape de Verds, Cape of Good Hope, Ceylon, Falkland Islands, France and Algeria, Gold Coast, Holland, Hong Kong, India, Madeira, Mauritius, Natal, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Portugal, Prince Edward Island, St Helena, Sierra Leone, and the United States; those for the Azores, Cape de Verds, Madeira, and Portugal being chargeable on delivery with 8d. per  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.; those for France and Algeria, 6d. per  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.; those for Norway, 6d. per  $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. each in addition to the postage; and those for the other places (except Holland, which are not chargeable with any addition), one extra rate each; but to all other places prepayment is compulsory. Book packets and patterns may be sent by ship for the same postage as by mail packets to all places where they can be forwarded by mail packet.

Newspapers by private ships to the Azores, Cape de Verds, Madeira, Norway, and Portugal, are charged 2d. each per 4 oz.; in all other cases they are charged 1d. each per 4 oz.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, ETC.

MODES OF PREPAYMENT.

Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets cannot be prepaid in money, but must be prepaid by means of stamps, either adhesive or embossed or impressed. This rule applies also to registered letters.

Exceptions.—At the Chief and District Post Offices and at the Charing Cross and Lombard Street Branch Offices in London, as well as at the Head Offices in Edinburgh and Dublin, letters and book packets may, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., be prepaid in money, provided the amount be never less than £1, and that the letters and book packets be tied in separate bundles of 60, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

Letters to places abroad may be prepaid either in money or in stamps; but the payment must be made wholly in stamps or wholly in money. This rule applies also to registered letters.

Newspapers, book packets, and sample packets for places abroad can be prepaid only by means of stamps; and in their case prepayment is always compulsory.

British postage stamps, though available for all letters, etc. going out of this country, are not, as a general rule, available for letters, etc. coming into it; the principal exception being in the case of letters posted by naval officers, marines, and seamen serving abroad, which, if posted in the ship's bag, must be prepaid by means of British postage stamps.

REGISTRATION (INLAND AND FOREIGN).

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book packet passing between any two places in the United Kingdom is fourpence.

The same fee is chargeable for the registration of letters, newspapers, book packets, and patterns to the British Colonies, United States, Germany, Italy, Switzerland (via Belgium), and (when sent in closed mails) to the British Post Offices in Egypt and Constantinople.

To all other foreign countries only letters or packets paying the letter rate can be registered. The fee chargeable in each case will be found in the table of Colonial and Foreign Postage. To some countries a letter can be registered only to the port of arrival, and to a few countries there is no arrangement for registration.

Registered letters, etc., must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered at Country Post Offices on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

Every letter to be registered should be presented at the window, and a receipt obtained for it, and should on no account be dropped into the letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, a letter marked 'Registered' be dropped into the letter-box, it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom or British Colonies, be liable to a registration fee of 8d., instead of the ordinary fee of 4d. A registered letter, if re-posted as an ordinary letter, with the word 'Registered' un erased or erased in pencil only, will also be liable to a registration fee of 8d.

Registered letters require to be posted at General Post Office thirty minutes, and Receiving Offices fifteen minutes, before the closing of the box for ordinary letters; but upon payment of a late fee of 4d. they may be registered after the hours specified, until the closing of the letter-box for each despatch (exclusive of the time during which late letters are received).

The registration of a packet makes its transmission much more secure; and the loss of a registered packet is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless, by Act of Parliament, the Post Office is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered packets, though any officer who may neglect his duty on this point will be called to strict account. Sent in unregistered letters, valuable articles are exposed to risk; and the department cannot in any way undertake the safe conveyance of such packets. All inland or colonial letters, therefore, which appear to contain coin, even though they be posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a double registration fee of 8d. in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the mail for which they are posted, are detained for the next despatch.

No letter-carrier, rural messenger, or other servant of the Post Office, is allowed to carry a letter for any person to be registered.

RE-DIRECTION.

Every re-directed letter, post card, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless the re-direction be made by an Officer of the Post Office, and both the original and the second address be within the same free delivery.

Exceptions.—No charge for re-direction is made on Government letters; nor is any charge for re-direction made on newspapers from abroad, unless they have been opened, in which case they are liable to postage as books.

Letters originally posted in the United Kingdom and re-directed to any place abroad are charged as unpaid letters. Foreign and colonial letters received and re-directed to some place abroad are liable to an additional foreign or colonial rate; but if re-directed to some place within the United Kingdom, they are liable only to an additional inland rate.

A registered letter, when re-directed to any place within the United Kingdom, is only liable to the same additional charge as an ordinary re-directed letter. If, however, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, it is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter (the word 'registered' not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter marked 'registered' and found in the letter box—is charged with a registration fee of eightpence, minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration. A registered letter re-directed to a colony or foreign country is liable to a second postage and registration fee, which must be prepaid.

Notices of removal and applications for letters to be re-directed must in all cases be made in writing, and be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and should be sent to the Secretary to the Post Office, or handed to the letter-carrier of the district.

DELIVERY.

No person living within the town free delivery, or within the limits of a rural post free delivery, unless he rent a private box, can claim to have his letters delivered at the office window if a delivery by letter-carrier or a despatch by messenger is about to take place; but letters which arrive by a mail, after which there is no immediate delivery by letter-carrier or messenger, may be obtained by any person on application at the office window, so long as the office is open for delivery.

In order to prevent the additional trouble which is sometimes caused by letters being directed to a Post Office for persons who reside within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, a postmaster is authorized, when such letters arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, to refuse to deliver them at the window (even though initials may have been substituted for the full name), and to send them out by the letter-carriers; except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

Private Boxes and Bags.—Any person can have a private box who is willing to pay the appointed fee. Where this fee goes to the revenue, it is generally fixed at one guinea per annum, to be paid in advance, and for a period of not less than a year; and where it goes to the postmaster, he may demand the same terms, though he may, at his option, take less. The same also, in most cases, are the terms for a private bag, except that, in addition, there is the cost of the bag itself, and a charge for conveyance, the maximum of the latter being half a guinea per annum if the bag be conveyed by a rural messenger, and two guineas if by a contractor for a mail cart or other horse post. If more than one rural messenger or more than one contractor take part in the conveyance of a private letter bag, each is allowed to charge the full amount of the fee for his service. The weight of a private bag, when empty, is limited to one pound. As the service of a private bag may possibly delay the despatch of the general bag, none are allowed without the permission of the surveyor. If a private letter bag made up at one post office be left at another to be called for or to be delivered from thence, the postmaster at such other office may make a charge for his trouble: this charge is usually 5s. per annum. Any person residing within the limits of a town free delivery, and renting a private letter bag, is considered to have the accommodation of a private box at the post office as well as a bag, and is liable to the full charge for both bag and box.

Postage Stamps, etc.—Postage labels are of the respective values of  $\frac{1}{4}$ d., 1d.,  $1\frac{1}{2}$ d., 2d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s., and 5s. The embossed envelopes are of four sizes, viz.  $4\frac{3}{4} \times 3\frac{1}{2}$ ,  $5\frac{1}{4} \times 3\frac{3}{4}$ ,  $5\frac{1}{4} \times 3$ ,  $4\frac{3}{4} \times 2\frac{3}{4}$ , and are sold thus: the largest size at 2s. 3d. per packet of 24, the other sizes at 2s. 2d. Stamped wrappers are sold in dozens or multiples of 12. The price of 12 is 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. Post cards sold at same rate.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell postage stamps (including stamped envelopes) at the same prices at which postmasters are empowered to sell them; and when any person applies to him for postage labels, the messenger must either supply them, or (if he has none in his possession) must, without extra charge, receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the Post Office obtain labels for it, and affix them carefully to the letters.

To discourage the transmission of coin by post, all postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose Offices Money Order business is transacted are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2 $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the charges are as follows: For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value,  $\frac{3}{4}$ d.; 3s. 4d., 1d.; 5s., 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.; 6s. 8d., 2d.; 8s. 4d., 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., and so on.

In order to prevent the temptation to steal stamps attached to letters, which might be afforded by facilities for selling them, no separate stamps can be purchased. They must in all cases be presented in strips containing at least two stamps adhering to each other.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the Department has recommended that the name or initials of firms, etc. be either printed on the back of the stamps (by arrangement with the Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House), or perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose; so that, the sale of such stamps being thereby rendered difficult (postmasters having been instructed not to purchase any of them), there may be little or no temptation to steal them.

ARTICLES NOT ALLOWED TO BE SENT BY POST.

It is forbidden to forward by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character. Anything posted contrary to this prohibition will be stopped and sent up to the Returned Letter Office.

Postmasters are instructed not to receive any letter which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag or the person of any officer of the Post Office. If such a packet be posted without the Postmaster's knowledge, or if at any time before its despatch he should discover any such packet, he is directed not to forward it, but to report the case, with the address of the packet, to the Secretary. The following are examples of the articles referred to:—

A glass bottle, or glass in any form; leeches, game, fish, meat, fruit, or vegetables; bladders or other vessels containing liquids; gunpowder, lucifer matches, or anything which is explosive or liable to sudden combustion. Razors, scissors, needles, knives, forks, or other sharp instruments are also forbidden, except when sent in packets of samples to the foreign countries mentioned in the section of Colonial and Foreign Pattern Post.

According to the regulations of Germany, no letter exceeding 250 grammes (a little more than 8 $\frac{1}{2}$  oz.) in weight, and containing any other enclosure than paper, can be allowed to circulate by the post. Any letters, therefore, forwarded in the mail to Germany above that weight, and containing any other enclosure than paper, will be liable, on their arrival at the Prussian frontier, to be stopped, and sent to the Custom House for delivery as freight.

The laws of Spain forbid the transmission by the post within that country of letters or other packets containing watches, jewellery, or other articles of value, which are liable to Customs duties; and the circulation of coin, jewellery, or other articles of value in letters is also prohibited in Belgium and Italy. Any such packets, therefore, which may be forwarded in the mails to Spain, Belgium, or Italy will not be delivered, but will be sent back from the frontier. A similar prohibition, on pain of forfeiture, is placed upon the transmission of diamonds and other jewels to the Turkish Empire, and of money and jewellery to the Republic of Costa Rica, and of jewellery, etc. to the colonies of New South Wales and Victoria, Australia.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a post office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public.

Provision having been made, by means of the British Postal Guide (with local Postal Guides in large towns) and the Postal Official Circular, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to postmasters and other officers of the department.

Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a post office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, except foreign and colonial letters about to be prepaid in money; but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

If a letter be forwarded under cover to any postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words 'posted at _____, under cover, to the Postmaster of _____.'

Every address should be legible and complete, and every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

The practice of sealing letters passing to and from the East and West Indies, and other countries with hot climates, with wax (except such as is specially prepared), is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury, not only to the letters so sealed, but to the other letters in the mail, from the melting of the wax and adhesion of the letters to each other. The public are therefore recommended in all such cases to use either wafers or gum, and to advise their correspondents in the countries referred to do the same.

The Poste Restante being intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers who have no permanent abode in Edinburgh, letters for residents in Edinburgh must not be addressed nor re-directed from a private address, 'Post Office till called for.' Letters addressed to 'Initials,' 'Numbers,' or 'Fictitious Names,' cannot be received at the Poste Restante; if so addressed, they are returned to the writers.

Letters may not be re-directed from a private address to 'Poste Restante.'

MONEY ORDERS.

The public are recommended, when applying for Money Orders, to use printed 'Application Forms,' which save time, and afford greater security than verbal messages against mistakes. These forms are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

The scale of charges on the issue of Inland Money Orders is as follows:—

|                      |     |
|----------------------|-----|
| For sums under 10s.  | 1d. |
| of 10s. and under £1 | 2d. |
| £1                   | 2   |
| 2                    | 3   |
| 3                    | 4   |
| 4                    | 5   |
|                      | 6d. |

|                             |      |
|-----------------------------|------|
| For sums of £5 and under £6 | 7d.  |
| 6                           | 8d.  |
| 7                           | 9d.  |
| 8                           | 10d. |
| 9                           | 11d. |
| 10                          | 1s.  |

This scale does not apply to Orders issued on the Colonies and places abroad, the charges on which remain unaltered.

No single Money Order can be issued for more than £10 (the only exception to this rule in Scotland is when the order is issued in payment of Government taxes, and in favour of the Receiver-General of Inland Revenue. In such a case, the order is not limited as to amount); neither can an order contain a fractional part of a penny.

With the subjoined exceptions, no Money Order can be issued, unless the applicant furnish, in full, the surname, and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, together with the remitter's address:—

1. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient; and the usual designation of a firm is sufficient, except in the case of a company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, as the 'Carron Company.'
2. When the remitter notifies that the order is to be paid through a bank, it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee.

When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid; otherwise the order can be cashed at the Head Office alone. It is not incumbent on a postmaster to supply such information relative to local or provincial offices.

An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office, or alteration of name, be required, the remitter must apply according to the directions printed on the back of the order.

In order to enable the remitter to obtain an acknowledgment of the receipt of a Money Order before the money is paid, it is arranged that he may make his order payable ten days after date, provided that, in the presence of the postmaster, when he obtains the order, he affixes thereto, in the space after the request C., a penny receipt stamp, and write his signature across the stamp.

When an order is presented for payment (otherwise than through a bank), the postmaster has first to see that the signature of the payee be as full as the name given in the advice, and be not in any way inconsistent therewith. He has then to call on the applicant to give the name of the remitter; and if the reply be correct, the order will be paid, unless the postmaster have good reason for believing that the applicant is neither the rightful claimant, nor deputed by him. When an order is paid through a bank, it is sufficient that it be receipted (without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, or to whether the receipt is given by the payee himself, or by another person), and that it be presented (crossed with the name of the receiving bank) by some person known to be in the employment of the bank.

The holder of a Money Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted; and when the order is thus crossed, the question put on the presentation of an ordinary Money Order is dispensed with.

Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

Payment of an order, issued and payable in the United Kingdom, and payable in Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Italy, or Switzerland, or issued by any of those countries on the United Kingdom, must be obtained before the end of the second calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, it must be paid before the end of March); otherwise the order becomes lapsed, and a new order is necessary, for which a second commission is charged. The period for payment of orders issued in the United Kingdom, and payable in any colony authorized to transact Money Order business, including Gibraltar and Malta, is six months; and orders granted at those places on the United Kingdom are also payable during six months after that in which they were issued. A person presenting a lapsed order is furnished with a copy of a printed notice, headed 'Lapsed Money Orders,' containing directions how to proceed. If the order be not paid before the end of the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in January, and not paid before the end of next January), all claim to the money is lost.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the office is not liable to any further claim.

To guard against any person, even if he obtain possession of a Money Order, fraudulently getting it cashed, the remitter is recommended—

1. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.
2. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank.
3. When it is not considered expedient to adopt either of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order; although this latter precaution is much less effective than either of the others.

Payment of an order cannot be demanded on the same day as that on which the order was issued.

In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order, a duplicate is granted on a written application (with the necessary particulars, and enclosing the amount of a second commission, in postage stamps) to the Controller of the Money Order Office of England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, where the original order was issued; and if it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a similar application, with a like enclosure of postage stamps, must be made to the Controller of the Money Order Office of that part of the kingdom in which the order is payable. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application must be made by the remitter to the postmaster of the office at which the order was issued, and a second commission must be paid. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application enclosing the order must be made to the postmaster at whose office the order is payable, who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the re-issue. Proper printed forms for making applications in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office, and full instructions on the subject will be found printed on the back of the Money Order. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant, and imposed on the officer in fault.

A postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, etc., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused in consequence of the replies to the questions respecting the remitter not corresponding with the entries in the advice, or of a difference in the name in the receipt, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing postmaster.

No letter-carrier, rural messenger, or other servant of the Post Office, is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the following colonies, British agencies, and Foreign countries:—

The renewal of a lapsed order, the issue of a duplicate order, or the stoppage of payment of an order issued by a colony on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Metropolitan Office of that portion of the United Kingdom in which such Colonial Order is payable, provided an additional British inland rate of commission be enclosed with the application; except in the case of lapsed orders, when the additional commission will be deducted from the amount of the new order issued by the department; but the lapsed order must be transmitted with the application for its renewal. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial orders originally drawn on their own offices. As regards Foreign Money Orders, applications should be made to the Controller of the Money Order Office, London.

For repayment of the amount of a Money Order, or for the correction of any error respecting the name of the payee or remitter of an order issued by a colony on the United Kingdom, the application on the subject, enclosing an additional colonial inland rate of commission, must be addressed to the Controller of the Metropolitan Office of the colony in which such order was issued.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

Every Post Office Savings Bank is also a Money Order Office, and is open for bank business during the same hours as for Money Orders.

Deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings, or of pounds and shillings, may be made by any person at the Post Office Savings Banks, provided that such depositor shall not make deposits amounting to more than £30, in any year ending the 31st December, or make any further deposit when the amount standing in his name, exclusive of interest, exceeds £150. When any Depositor's principal and interest amount together to £200, all interest will cease so long as the balance of the account continues to amount to the said sum of £200.

Interest, calculated yearly at the rate of £2, 10s. per cent. per annum, will be allowed on every complete pound deposited, reckoned from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound shall have been deposited or completed up to the first day of the calendar month in which the moneys are withdrawn. The interest thus calculated will be at the rate of one halfpenny per calendar month for every complete pound. The interest will be reckoned to the 31st December in every year, and will then be added to the principal.

Besides ordinary persons, deposits may be made:—

- (A.) By a Trustee on behalf of another person, in the joint names of such Trustee and the person on whose account such money shall be so deposited; but repayment of the same, or any part thereof, will not be made without the receipts of both parties. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.
- (B.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf, provided neither of them is already a depositor.
- (C.) By any person under 21 years of age or for his benefit; and repayment will be made to such minor, if more than 7 years old, as if he were of full age.
- (D.) By the Trustees of any legally established Friendly, Charitable, or Provident Society, or Penny Savings Bank; provided such Trustees make application by post to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, accompanied by a copy of their rules. Such Societies, etc. are allowed to invest considerably beyond the usual limit, or even without restriction as to amount, according to circumstances.
- (E.) In the name of the Registrar of any County Court. Under the 24th sect. of the Act 30 and 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), 'trust moneys' not in excess of £500 may be thus deposited; and under the 26th sect., money paid into a County Court in 'equitable proceedings' may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

Deposits made in Scotland by a married woman, or by a woman afterwards married, will be repaid to her unless her husband shall give notice, in writing, to the Postmaster-General requiring payment to be made to him. This rule applies also to deposits made in England or Ireland before the 9th of August 1870; from which day, by the passing of the Married Women's Property Act, all deposits made in England or Ireland by a married woman, or by a woman who may afterwards marry (unless the money belong to her husband and be deposited without his consent), are the separate and uncontrolled property of the woman.

Every deposit in a Post Office Savings Bank must be immediately entered by the postmaster, or other person receiving it, in a book, which book is to be kept by the depositor; and the postmaster or other person receiving the deposit should affix his signature and the stamp of his office to each entry. Depositors should carefully examine their books before leaving the offices at which they make their deposits, and ascertain that they have obtained correct receipts for the sums deposited by them.

In addition to the receipts which the depositors will thus obtain in their deposit books, they will receive for each deposit an acknowledgment by post from the Savings Bank Department in London. This acknowledgment should reach the depositor within ten days from the day on which the deposit is made. If the acknowledgment does not reach the depositor in proper time, application for it by letter should immediately be made to the Postmaster-General.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made by him, the depositor should forward his deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of that department, and in order that the interest due to the previous 31st December may be inserted in it.

When a depositor wishes to withdraw the whole or any part of the sum due to him, he must make application for the same to the Postmaster-General on a printed form called a Notice of Withdrawal, which he can obtain at any Post Office Savings Bank. When he has properly filled up this form, he must fold it and secure it, and forward it by post as if it were an ordinary letter. In return for it he will receive, probably by return of post, a warrant for the amount required by him, payable at the Post Office Bank named by him in the Notice of Withdrawal.

A depositor in any Post Office Savings Bank may add to his deposits at that or any other Post Office Savings Bank, and may withdraw the whole or any part of them from that or any other Post Office Savings Bank, without change of deposit book. For instance, if he makes his first deposit at the Post Office Bank at Huddersfield, he may make further deposits at, or withdraw his money from, the Post Office Bank at Huddersfield, or Leeds, Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh, Dublin, or any other place which may be convenient to him.

No charge will be made to depositors for the books first supplied to them, or for the renewal of those books; but if any depositor shall lose his book, and shall desire a new book, he must make application to the Postmaster-General for the same, and must enclose in his application postage stamps to the value of 1s. to pay for the new book. If a depositor loses his book, he should immediately give notice of the loss to the Postmaster-General.

No charge for postage will be made on the depositor for any letter passing between him and the Savings Bank Department with regard to his deposits, or with regard to the withdrawal of the same, or for the transmission of his deposit book between him and the Savings Bank Department.

The postmasters and other officers of the Postmaster-General employed in the receipt or payment of deposits, are strictly forbidden to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount of his deposits, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as are appointed to assist in carrying on the business of the Post Office Banks.

A full statement of the regulations of the Post Office Banks may be seen at any Money Order Office.

GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY OFFICE.

The Postmaster-General is empowered, under the Act 27 & 28 Vict. c. 43, to insure the lives of persons of either sex, between the ages of 16 and 60, for not less than £20 or more than £100. He is also empowered, under the same Act, to grant Immediate or Deferred Annuities of not more than £50 on the lives of persons of either sex, and of the age of 10 years and upwards. The persons whose lives are insured, or to whom Annuities are granted, by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

Tables of the premiums to be charged for the Insurance of Lives; for the grant of Immediate Annuities; for the grant of Deferred Annuities or Deferred Monthly Allowances, without return of purchase money, and for the grant of Deferred Annuities or Deferred Monthly Allowances, with return of purchase money, may be seen at the General Post Office.

PREMIUMS CHARGED FOR THE INSURANCE OF LIVES.

The life of a man or woman in his or her 30th year may be insured for £100—

|                                                                                       | £  | s. | d. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|----|----|
| By a single payment of . . . . .                                                      | 43 | 3  | 7  |
| Or by an annual payment, throughout life, of . . . . .                                | 2  | 6  | 7  |
| Or by a fortnightly payment, throughout life, of . . . . .                            | 0  | 2  | 2  |
| Or by an annual payment, until the insured person reaches the age of 60, of . . . . . | 2  | 13 | 10 |
| Or by a fortnightly payment of . . . . .                                              | 0  | 2  | 6  |

Smaller sums may be insured by proportionate payments, but no one of the periodical payments must be of less amount than two shillings.

No one life can be insured for less than £20 in the whole; but when a life has been insured for £20, further insurances may be effected on the same life from time to time, for any amount, until the whole sum for which it is insured amounts to £100.

If, after having duly made his payments for a period of five years, the insured person shall be unable to continue, or shall desire to discontinue, such payments, a portion of the premiums paid by him, which portion will in no case be less than one-third of the whole sum paid by him, will be returned to him.

The sums to be charged for the purchase of Immediate Annuities will vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the annuity is to depend:

|                                                                                                  |     |    |   |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|----|---|
| Thus, a man aged 65 can purchase an Immediate Annuity of £10, payable half-yearly, for . . . . . | £88 | 18 | 4 |
| A woman of the same age can purchase a like Annuity for . . . . .                                | 103 | 16 | 8 |
| A man aged 70 can purchase an Im-                                                                |     |    |   |

|                                                                   |     |    |   |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|----|---|
| mediate Annuity of £10, payable half-yearly, for . . . . .        | £73 | 3  | 4 |
| A woman of the same age can purchase a like Annuity for . . . . . | 84  | 19 | 2 |

The sums to be charged for the purchase of Deferred Annuities or Deferred Monthly Allowances will vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the Annuity or Monthly Allowance is to depend, and with the length of the term for which the Annuity is deferred (or in other words, with the number of years which are to pass before the commencement of the Annuity), and with the conditions of the contract as to the mode of purchase, mode of payment, and return or non-return of purchase money.

When the condition of the contract is to be, that no part of the purchase money shall in any event be returned:

|                                                                                                                                                                             |     |    |   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|----|---|
| A man aged 30 may purchase a Deferred Annuity of £10, to commence on his reaching the age of 60, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an immediate payment of . . . . . | £21 | 3  | 4 |
| Or by an annual payment, until he reaches the age of 60, of . . . . .                                                                                                       | 1   | 8  | 4 |
| A woman of like age may purchase a like Annuity by an immediate payment of . . . . .                                                                                        | 32  | 8  | 4 | and a man aged 30 may purchase a Deferred Allowance of £2, 7s. 3d. per month, to commence when he reaches the age of 60, by a payment until he reaches that age of 8s. per month; and a woman of like age may, by a like payment of 8s. per month, purchase a Deferred Allowance of £1, 16s. 7d., to commence when she reaches the age of 60.

When the condition of the contract is that, in the event of the death of the person on whose life the Annuity or Allowance is to depend before the commencement of the Annuity or Allowance, the purchase money is to be returned to his representatives, and that if the purchaser at any time before the commencement of the Annuity or Allowance is unable to continue, or wishes to discontinue, the purchase, the purchase money shall be returned to him; the price charged will be higher than when no such condition is made.

Under this condition, a man aged 30 may purchase a Deferred Annuity of £10, to commence when he attains to 60 years of age, and to be payable half-yearly, either by an immediate payment of . . . . .

and a man aged 30 may purchase an allowance of £1, 14s. 2d. per month, to commence when he attains the age of 60 years, by a monthly payment of 8s.; and a woman of like age, by a like payment until she reaches the age of 60 years, may purchase an Allowance of £1, 9s. 4d. per month.

The Annuity or Monthly Allowance granted on any one life must not exceed £50 per annum, or £4, 3s. 4d. per month; but purchasers need not purchase the whole amount of such Annuity or Allowance at one time. They may begin by purchasing such part as they can afford to purchase, and go on increasing their purchases from time to time as their circumstances will permit.

Husband and Wife may each be insured to the full amount of £100, and may each purchase an Annuity of £50, or a Monthly Allowance of £4, 3s. 4d. Any two persons may purchase an Annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the Annuity to the survivor.

Persons contracting for the insurance of their lives, or for the purchase of Annuities or Monthly Allowances, will be allowed to pay their periodical premiums or instalments of purchase money at such of the post offices which have been or may hereafter be opened for the purpose, as will suit them best.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom, including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, but excepting the Scilly, Orkney, and Shetland Islands, is 1s. for the first twenty words, and 3d. for every additional five words, i.e. for every additional group of not more than five words, the names and addresses of the sender and receiver not being counted.

The charge for telegrams to the Scilly Islands is 3s. 6d. for the first twenty words, and 9d. for every additional five words; and to the Orkney and Shetland Islands, 2s. for the first twenty words, and 6d. for every additional five words, except to Moss Bank, Culla Voe, Uya Sound, and Balta Sound, in Shetland, the rates to which are 3s. for the first twenty words, and 9d. for every additional five words.

The inland telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the 'A 1' form, embossed with a stamp of the value of 1s., and the 'A' form (given gratis), with no stamp embossed thereon. The 'A 1' forms may be purchased singly or in any number. They may also be had bound up into books of fifty forms, price £2, 10s. Stamped telegram cards are also sold at same rate.

When the terminal telegraph office, i.e. the office from which the message is delivered, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for the transmission of a message covers the cost of delivery within the town postal delivery of that office. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free only within a radius from it of one mile.

When the addressee resides beyond the above-described limits, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per double mile (that is, a mile out and a mile back), or any part thereof, provided the whole distance to be traversed does not exceed three miles out and three miles back.

If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three miles from the terminal telegraph office, portage is charged for delivery by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per double mile, except in the case of telegrams for Ireland, where the charge is 8d. per double mile.

If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal telegraph office, he must write the words 'by post' or 'by train' in the space provided for that purpose at the foot of the message-form.

A deposit of 5s. is required upon all telegrams addressed to persons on board ship (unless the ship be lying in the dock) to cover any expense incurred in their delivery; but application can be made to the Secretary for any surplus.

Telegrams may be repeated at the request of the sender, if he desires to adopt this extra security against risk of error. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff; fractions of threepence being reckoned as twopence.

Telegrams may be re-directed from town to town at an extra charge of one-half the ordinary tariff, but in such cases they must not have been opened.

Persons who wish to avoid sending so far as to a Telegraph Office may, without additional charge, post either a stamped telegram card, or a telegram form enclosed in an envelope addressed 'Telegraph Office,' in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a Receiving Office or Sub-Post Office. Telegrams so posted are sent on to the nearest Postal Telegraph Office by the first collection from the letter-box in which they are deposited. The period of arrival at the Postal Telegraph Office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

Telegrams so posted, but insufficiently prepaid, are forwarded to their destination, the difference of charge being obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

As most of the Telegraph Offices in the United Kingdom are closed between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m., it should be borne in mind that if a telegram be deposited in a box at such a time that it cannot reach a Telegraph Office before 7 p.m., it may not reach its destination until after 8 a.m. on the following day.

No combination of two or more words is counted as one word, with the exception of those words which are ordinarily coupled by hyphens, such as 'mother-in-law,' 'non-delivery,' 'sub-lieutenant,' 'alms-houses,' etc., or words denoting the names of persons or towns, whether connected by hyphens or not, such as 'O'Neil,' 'MacDonald,' 'Newcastle-on-Tyne,' 'Isle of Wight,' etc. The name of the county added to the name of a place is reckoned separately, as, for example, 'Newcastle, Staff.,' 'Bradford, Yorks.,' the charge being in each instance for two words.

The following exceptional compound words are charged for as one word:—

|            |              |              |
|------------|--------------|--------------|
| Midday.    | To-day.      | Halfpenny.   |
| Midnight.  | To-night.    | Twopence,    |
| Noonday.   | To-morrow.   | and pence    |
| Se'nnight. | Yesternight. | up to        |
| Cannot.    | Yesterday.   | Elevenpence. |

Also all denominations of trades, such as linen-draper, silversmith, sharebroker, etc.

Abbreviations of auxiliary verbs designated by apostrophes (such as can't, won't, don't, I'll, you'll, couldn't, shouldn't, etc.) are charged for as one word. By writing words in this way, however, there is a greater risk of error.

Numbers expressed in figures in an inland telegram are counted as so many words, according to the number of figures employed. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed to express the quantity, one word being added for the bar or mark of division between the numerator and denominator.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should turn out that the telegram had been inaccurately transmitted.

The Department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams.

Telegraph Offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on week days, and from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open for longer periods; and at various offices in London and in the country there is attendance continuously during the day and night, both on week-days and Sundays.

Particulars as to Foreign Telegrams can be obtained at any Postal Telegraph Office.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, ETC.

The following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Act 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97 (amended by 34 Vict. c. 4, 34 and 35 Vict. c. 103, and 35 and 36 Vict. c. 20), with the Duty on Policies of Insurance, Letters Patent, Patent Medicine, and Plate, and Inventory, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under the former Acts. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule. New matter is put within brackets. When the sections are merely cited without the Act, they are the sections of 33 and 34 Vict. c. 97. All items in the schedule of the Act relating solely to England and Ireland are excluded. In the same session were passed the Acts 33 and 34 Vict. c. 98, Stamp Duties Management, and 33 and 34 Vict. c. 99, repealing certain enactments relating to the Stamp Duties. The Duties came into operation on the 1st January 1871.

The exemptions in other Acts in force are preserved (§ 3).

The attention of the public may be directed to the following matters:—

1. The general deed duty, or duty on a deed, not otherwise charged, is reduced to 10s.

2. Progressive duty on words is not imposed.

3. Provisions are made for charging ad valorem duty on conveyances in respect of periodical payments or annuities.—(§ 72.)

4. An agreement for a lease for a term not exceeding 35 years is to be charged with the lease duty.—(§ 96.)

5. An instrument chargeable as a lease in consideration, in whole or in part, of produce or other goods—

Where it is stipulated that the value shall amount to or not exceed a given sum, ad valorem lease duty on such sum.

A statement in the lease in regard to the value of such produce or goods to be conclusive as to stamp duty, unless and until shown to be incorrect.—(§ 97.)

6. A notarial instrument is liable to the same duty as an instrument of seisin—to wit, 5s.

7. Any instrument specifically charged by any previous Act with the duty of 35s., is chargeable with the duty of 10s.—(§ 4.)

8. Instruments relating to the property of the Crown, and to the private property of the sovereign, are liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject.—(§ 5.)

9. Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 7 (1.) Every instrument on the same piece of material is to be separately stamped.—§ 7 (2.)

10. Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 8 (1.) An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 8 (2.)

11. An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 9 (1.) An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 9 (2.)

12. All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, penalty on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—(§ 10.)

13. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of money in foreign or colonial currency, the duty to be calculated on the value in British currency, according to the current rate of exchange at the date of the instrument.—(§ 11.)

14. Instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of stock or marketable security, the duty to be calculated on the value, according to the average price at the date of the instrument.—(§ 12.)

15. If the instrument contains a statement of the current rate of exchange, or average price, and is stamped accordingly, it is to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that the instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—(§ 13.)

16. The duties apply to instruments executed in the United Kingdom, and to instruments where-soever executed, relating to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in the United Kingdom.—(§ 17.)

17. No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be pleaded or given in evidence, or admitted to be good, useful, or available in law or equity, unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—(§ 17.)

18. If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, penalty £10.—(§ 22.)

19. Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—(§ 23.)

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—All personal property (heritable securities are personal property) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and personal bonds excluding executors. (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, etc.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 & 22 Vict. c. 56, § 9, 12, 13, etc.; and 16 & 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8.)

Personal Property—Absolute power of disposal.—Personal estate which a person, dying after 3d April 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or moveable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty. (23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration, before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1): Also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person, registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 & 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death. (25 Vict. c. 22, § 39.)

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country. See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson and Welsby 171.

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executry. In addition, from and after 1st August 1870, the Act 33 & 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house rents would not therefore be to the half-year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.

When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Commissary Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made moveable by the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a 'special inventory' of the heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the U. K.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.*

FARES BY DISTANCE.

1. The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these Bye-laws, shall be seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh.

2. When a party not exceeding two grown-up persons, and without any luggage other than a carpet-bag or the like, enters a carriage at a stance, or when driving along disengaged, they shall be driven half a mile for 6d.; and if they return they shall pay the same fare. The driver shall draw up to either side of the pavement when called; and if detained more than five minutes before starting, he shall be entitled to 6d. for waiting.

N.B.—This rule shall not apply to fares from railway stations.

3. Excepting the Sixpenny Fare, the fares by distance shall be shown in the annexed Table of Fares. The charges in the table shall include going from the stance or stable to the hirer's residence, and waiting ten minutes. But if the carriage be detained, before starting, more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour, or part thereof, after the expiry of the ten minutes, shall be allowed; and if the place where the hirer is to be taken up be beyond half a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, there shall be a charge of 6d. for such distance.

4. When any place is not mentioned in the table, the fare shall be the same as that to any place mentioned which may be in the immediate vicinity.

5. When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare shall be 1s. for a distance from the stance not exceeding a mile and a half, and sixpence for every additional half-mile or part thereof.

6. Half fare returning with the party, excepting the half-mile drive.

7. When parties return (which they shall have the option of doing), and the fare going is 1s., the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; when 1s. 6d., fifteen minutes; when 2s. and upwards, twenty minutes. If the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every twenty minutes, or part thereof, commencing at the periods when the free waiting expires.

8. When a carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that.—Waiting as in Section 7.

FARES BY TIME.

It shall be in the option of the hirer to employ a carriage within the municipal bounds by time, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous. The charge in such cases shall be 1s. for the first half-hour, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour.

For an AIRING into the country within seven miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning either by the same or a different road, the rate shall be 6d. for every ten minutes, or 3s. per hour. A drive round the Queen's Drive shall be considered an airing. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when out an airing shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare in the proportion of 3s. for every six miles so travelled.

WHETHER THE FARES ARE BY DISTANCE OR BY TIME.

1. The hirer pays tolls.

2. If there be more than four grown-up persons driven, a charge of 6d. extra shall be made for each additional grown-up person, or for each two children above six years of age, and under twelve. No additional charge for one child above six to twelve, or children under six years.

3. From twelve at night till seven morning—double fare.

4. The above fares are for one-horse carriages, and there shall be no additional charge when two horses are used.

5. Owners or drivers may agree to drive at lower fares than those fixed. In that case, should they demand more than the fare agreed on, they shall be liable as for an overcharge.

LUGGAGE.

For luggage exceeding 100 lbs. in weight there shall be a charge of 6d. extra. But there shall be no charge for luggage under that weight. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading in all cases when required.

FARES MAY BE WITHHELD.

Any party shall be entitled to withhold payment of the fare—

1. When the name and number are not painted outside, or when there is no plate inside, in terms of Article Third of these bye-laws.
2. When the reference ticket is not given.
3. When the bye-laws, table of fares, and driver's licence are not shown on demand.
4. When an overcharge is made.
5. When the driver fails or refuses to complete an engagement.

REDRESS.

Parties aggrieved will obtain redress on application to the Procurator-Fiscal at the City Chambers, within eight days after the date of the offence, except in cases when parties are prevented making such application by their absence from town.

Note.—Attention is specially directed to the 237th Section of the Police Act, which imposes a penalty not exceeding 10s. on any person who refuses to pay the regular fare on demand.

* See Note at top of p. 650.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THE CALEDONIAN INSURANCE COMPANY

Offers intending Assurers

MODERATE PREMIUMS, LARGE BONUSES, PERFECT SECURITY.

FOR FAMILY PROVISIONS these are most important. No Office can hold out greater advantages, and that can easily be ascertained by inquiry.

FIVE DIVISIONS OF THE LIFE PROFITS have already been made, at each of which the BENEFITS allocated to the Assured were INCREASED. Few Companies, however large their Business, have been able to do so.

LIBERAL CONDITIONS as to residence abroad and revival of Policies.

CLAIMS PAYABLE three months after proof of Death.

FUNDS ALL INVESTED IN HOME SECURITIES.

MUTUAL SOCIETIES claim superiority over PROPRIETARY COMPANIES on the ground that they have no Dividend to provide for Shareholders.

The following question on this subject should be asked before intending Assurers join those Mutual Societies who try to secure business by the ridiculous cry of no Dividends payable to Shareholders as in Proprietary Companies:—

How is it that in many Proprietary Companies, such as the Caledonian, who charge a lower rate of Premium than the Mutual Societies, the Bonuses to the Assured are, notwithstanding the Dividends to Shareholders, larger than those of the Mutual Companies?

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Almost every description of Property Insured at the usual rates. Losses adjusted with liberality, and settled promptly.

NO FOREIGN BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

THIS COMPANY was established at Edinburgh in 1825. The Acts of Parliament 2d and 3d Gul. iv. cap. 81, and 8th and 9th Vict. cap. 75, also the 22d and 23d Vict. cap. 27, have been granted for the purpose of its constitution and for the regulation of its affairs. ## THE STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY—continued.

DIVISION OF PROFITS AMONG THE POLICYHOLDERS.

ONE FEATURE in the STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY, the operation of which has contributed in a marked degree to the great success of the Institution, is the liberal DIVISION OF PROFITS among the Assured, and the Directors request attention to the great advantages of the system. The Divisions are made at intervals of five years, and they are preceded by a most searching investigation into the affairs of the Company.

THE REPORT ON THE EIGHTH DIVISION OF PROFITS

As at 15th November 1870

Can be obtained at the Offices of the Company; and the result of that division, as well as the whole proceedings connected with it, cannot fail to give the greatest satisfaction to those interested, and to inspire with confidence those who contemplate effecting a Life Assurance.

The Report bears abundant testimony to the great caution exercised in the valuation of the Company's Assets and Liabilities. The Company have Divided Profits on Eight occasions. The First Division took place in 1835, ten years after the Establishment of the Company, the next in 1840, then in 1845, 1850, 1855, 1860, 1865, and 1870. On all these occasions the Policyholders received large benefits from the profits of the business, and recently

AT THE DIVISION OF PROFITS IN 1870,

THE LARGE SUM OF

£331,591, 18s.

Was allocated to the Policyholders, representing reversionary Bonus Additions to Assurances to the amount of £700,000.

THE DIRECTORS INVITE PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE STANDARD POLICY.

Free Assurance.—Persons not less than 25 years of age, who, when proposing for Assurance, have no intention or prospect of proceeding abroad, from their occupation and other circumstances, as to which the Directors are satisfied, pay the ordinary Home Premium, and may afterwards proceed to and reside in any part of the world without extra premium.

Policies of Five Years' Duration, effected for the whole term of Life at a uniform rate of premium, may, with certain exceptions, be renewed within thirteen months of date of lapsing, on payment of a fine; and, in the event of death, the claims will be paid, subject to deduction of Premiums unpaid and Fines.

Policies of less than Five Years' Duration may be renewed within thirteen months on very favourable terms.

Surrender Values after payment of ONE ANNUAL PREMIUM on 'With Profit' Policies, or THREE ANNUAL PREMIUMS on those 'Without Profits.' Loans granted on such Policies within their value.

Fixed Surrender Values within limits.

A Standard Policy is Unchallengeable according to the resolution of 1861, on any ground whatever connected with the original documents on which the Assurance was effected, after it has endured five years, and that without application to the Directors or other forms, evidence of age having been produced.

THE NON-FORFEITABLE PREMIUM SYSTEM

(Now extended by the Association to almost all kinds of Assurances) entitles the Policy-holder to discontinue his policy at any time after the first two or three years without loss of Payments.

PROTECTIVE REGULATIONS.

REGULATIONS giving the utmost protection to the Policy-holders have always been conspicuous in the system of the ASSOCIATION.

BONUSES FROM PROFITS.

In CLASS A. the PROFITS are allocated in yearly Cash Bonuses, so applied as largely to reduce the Policy-holder's outlay after the sixth payment.

In CLASS B. the Profits are allocated every five years in the form of Contingent Bonus Additions to the Sums Assured. Being reserved for those who do not die before the average period, these Bonuses are very much larger than usual.

FULL PREMIUMS NEED NOT BE PAID

Under whole of Life Assurances or Endowment Assurances, of not less than £300; TWO-THIRDS only of the Premiums need be paid for the first Six Years' Premiums in Class A., or of the first Ten Years' Premiums in Class B.; the other third continuing unpaid as long as the Assured pleases, and, with interest thereon, to be deducted from the sum assured at the termination of the Policy, if not previously paid. The Assured, under this arrangement, will receive the same share of profit as if he had paid the full Premiums. This privilege, if desired, should be applied for before issue of the Policy, and will be stated therein.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY is an Institution peculiarly adapted for securing family provisions. It is a purely Mutual Assurance Society. The whole Profits belong to the Members, who are at the same time expressly exempted from personal responsibility. No part is, as in the case of a Proprietary Company, diverted from those who are assured, and paid away to Shareholders; and the additions which have already been made to Policies afford the clearest evidence of the prosperity of the Institution and the great advantages derived by its Members. The Profits are divided every five years, and are allocated not only on the sums originally assured, but also on the previously vested Bonus Additions. Bonuses are also paid for the period between the date of the last Division and the date of death.

The total Additions made to Policies amount to £1,706,164.

Foreign Residence.—The Assured are allowed to travel or reside in any part of Europe without licence; and, on application, licence will be given, without payment of Extra Premium, to reside in Canada, the Northern States of North America, Australia (to the southward of 30° south latitude), New Zealand, and the Cape Colony. A small extra premium is charged for the risk of the voyage to the three last-mentioned places.

No Extra Charge is made for Military Service of any description within the United Kingdom.

Indisputable Policies.—Policies of Five Years' endurance, on which the ordinary Premiums, and any extra premiums exigible, shall be duly paid, are now free from challenge, except on the ground of fraud only: further, Policies of Five Years' standing may be declared Indisputable on any ground whatever, except non-payment of the Ordinary Premiums, no extra Premiums being exigible, on satisfactory evidence that the Assured have no prospect of going beyond the limits of Europe.

Surrender of Policies.—A liberal allowance (ascertained on fixed principles in all cases) is given on the Surrender of Policies for the whole term of life, on which three years' Premiums have been paid.

Loans to Policy-holders are granted to an extent not exceeding the Surrender Value of their Policies, free of all expense, and without any other security than the deposit of the Policies. These Loans may be repaid at any time.

THIS Society undertakes every description of Life Assurance, and the Public will find that the Rates of Premium are as moderate as is consistent with perfect security.

NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICY.

The Directors of this Society have, from its formation, kept in view the desirability of preventing loss to that numerous class of Assurers who, after paying Premiums for some years, are compelled by circumstances to cease further payment, and thus lose all benefit from the sums paid previously. To prevent such a loss, a distinct class of Policies are issued by this Society, subject to the payment of a limited number of Premiums; and the Assured may, after the payment of ONE-FIFTH of the whole number of Premiums, receive a Policy in the shape of an absolute Reversion of value equivalent to the amount of Premiums already paid.

After Five Annual Premiums have been paid on the ordinary Whole Life Policy, this Society will also grant a similar Policy in proportion to the amount paid.

TO MINISTERS OF RELIGION.—The Directors of the ARK ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF SCOTLAND call the special attention of Ministers of Religion to this Office, the Assurance of their Lives being one of its most important features.

It is a well-established fact in Life Statistics, that, as a body, Ministers of Religion have a marked superiority in duration of Life; and the Directors of the ARK ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF SCOTLAND have had Special Tables computed by one of the most eminent Actuaries of the day for the Insurance of their Lives, on terms much lower than can be accorded to the Public at large, and not necessarily incurring a debt on the Policy.

Prospectuses, Forms of Application, and all other particulars may be obtained on application.

A Liberal Commission allowed to Solicitors.

LIFE BUSINESS ONLY IS TRANSACTED BY THE COMPANY.

THE RATES OF PREMIUM of this Company are More Moderate than those of many other Offices, while the Security afforded by the Company is Unsurpassed.

THE CONDITIONS of the Company's Policies are very liberal in regard to freedom from Extra Premium for Foreign Residence, granting of Loans on Security of Policies, etc. etc.

THE PROFITS are distributed on a special system, which, while giving a fair share to Policies becoming Claims at early ages, secures to Policies of long standing, and where the Assured have attained old age, very large and important benefits, greatly exceeding those which result from the ordinary plan of giving an equal rate of Bonus to all Policies, irrespective of the age of the Assured. At the last Division of Profits, in 1871, the Sum of £128,740 was allotted to the Policy-holders, producing Bonuses ranging from 18s. per cent. per annum on the Sum Assured at age 20, to considerably more than £3 per cent. per annum at age 80. In very many instances the system has resulted in more than doubling the original Amounts of Policies. The value of the Company's Policies in the case of long life, as a mere investment of money, is shown by the following examples:—

| Age at Death. | Sum Assured. | Bonus Additions. | Total Sum paid by the Company at Death. | Total Premiums paid (without interest). |

THE NON-FORFEITURE SYSTEM recently introduced by the Directors enables the Policy-holder to cease paying Premiums at any time, without thereby incurring loss. Under this system, on the Policy-holder intimating his desire to discontinue his payments, a Free Policy, on which no further Premiums are payable, is granted for the proportion of the Original

Assurance which the full Sum remaining in the Company's hands will secure after payment for the risk and expenses. The Free Policy is generally greater in amount than the total Premiums paid.

This is instead of the usual result of non-payment of Premium—namely, either (1) the forfeiture of the whole balance of Premiums remaining in hand, or (2) the payment of a portion only of the balance as the Surrender Value of the cancelled Policy. The Surrender Value may still be taken in Cash, should the Policy-holder prefer it.

THE FOLLOWING TABLE contains specimens of the operation of the Non-Forfeiture System, on the assumption that the future profits will not be less than those hitherto realized :—

DEPOSITS AND DEBENTURES.

THE ASSOCIATION receives Money on DEPOSIT or DEBENTURE BOND, at Rates varying from 3 to 4½ per cent., according to the market value of money at the time. If preferred, a uniform Rate of Interest will be given on Deposits for fixed periods of from one to five years, on terms to be arranged. The Debenture Bonds will be granted for three, five, or seven years.

SAFETY OF DEPOSITS AND DEBENTURES.

The ASSOCIATION lends its Funds on HERITABLE PROPERTY only, and at rates corresponding to the market value of money. All the Loans are repayable by instalments, which adds greatly to their safety, any depreciation which might take place in the value of the security being more than met by the gradual diminution of the Loan. The risk arising from the Investments of the Company is thus small, and they are enabled to give comparatively high rates for Deposits. In addition to the fact that the Loans are all secured on Heritable Property only, Depositors have the farther guarantee of the Company's large Subscribed Capital, which amounts to (of which £50,000 has been paid up) . . . . . £250,000 and a RESERVE FUND of . . . . . £18,500

LOANS.

Loans are granted on Security of Land, Houses, and every description of Heritable Property.

The Loans are repayable in periods of from four to sixteen years. If desired, part only may be made repayable by instalments—the remainder bearing interest, payable half-yearly.

Borrowers can pay off their Loans at any time, either in whole or in part; or the period of repayment can be altered to one more suitable.

THE SCOTTISH PROPERTY INVESTMENT COMPANY was established in 1849. Conducted on liberal, yet safe and economical principles, it rapidly acquired, and has ever since retained, the confidence of the public. Since its commencement, it has made advances for the purchase of property to no less an extent than £890,000. The Directors are always prepared and disposed to treat liberally with intending Borrowers, and in large transactions they may allow one-third of an advance to lie at interest, while the remaining two-thirds is being redeemed according to the following Table:—

TABLE showing the ANNUAL and MONTHLY REPAYMENTS, including Interest, for a Loan of £100:—

PROPERTY INVESTMENT COMPANY OF SCOTLAND.

THE OPERATIONS OF THIS COMPANY EMBRACE THREE OBJECTS :

1. Receiving stated Contributions from Unadvanced Shareholders, which are accumulated at Compound Interest.
2. Making Advances to Shareholders to enable them to Purchase, Build, or Redeem Burdens on Dwelling Houses, Offices, Shops, etc.
3. Receiving Deposits from the General Public at a Liberal rate of Interest.

1. Accumulation of Savings.

A Share in the Company is constituted by a Fortnightly payment of One Shilling; and a Fortnightly payment of Four Shillings, i.e. for Four Shares, accumulating at 5 per cent. compound interest (the ordinary rate of profit), amounts in fourteen years to £100, of which £27, 4s. is interest.

No Fines are imposed for arrears in contribution, and Unadvanced Shares can at any time be withdrawn.

2. Advances for Property.

Advances are made to Shareholders for Purchasing or Building Houses, Shops, or Offices, or to Redeem Burdens on the same. An annual payment of £10, 2s. for 14 years extinguishes both Principal and Interest for every £100 advanced. Advances can at any time be redeemed.

A small Sum annually, in addition to rent, soon enables a Shareholder to become his own landlord.

3. Deposits.

A Liberal Interest is allowed on Deposits. Depositors incur no liability as Shareholders, and their claims for Principal and Interest are preferable debts on the Company. Deposits are repayable as arranged.

Security.

The Company cannot, by Act of Parliament, invest its Funds in other than Heritable Securities, and the extent of Advances in every instance is limited to the amount authorized by the Surveyor, which is always short of the market value of the property; and as the Advances immediately become repayable by instalments, the Company incur less risk than ordinary lenders on heritable bonds, to whom interest only is paid without reduction of the principal sum.

Law Agent—JOHN ROBERTSON, S.S.C., 63 Hanover Street.

The large measure of success which has attended the operations of the Provident Property Investment Companies, two of which have been brought to a close in thirteen years in place of fourteen years, and thus saving one entire year's payments to both borrowers and investors, has induced a number of Shareholders and their friends to establish another Company under the name of THE FIFTH PROVIDENT PROPERTY INVESTMENT COMPANY.

The Terminating Principle, on which these Companies have been carried on, has the great merit of simplicity and equity to both borrowers and investors, both being entitled to an equal share of the Profits; and the promoters have every confidence that, under the same economical and careful management, the Company now forming will enjoy a measure of prosperity equal to those that have preceded it.

In the constitution of the New Company, special attention is requested to the fact that no Premiums nor Commissions will be charged on Advances, and that there are no annual charges for management.

The Rules, which have been carefully prepared, embody all the most recent improvements suggested by the experience of Property Investment Companies.

EDINBURGH—91 PRINCES STREET.

THE BALMORAL HOTEL.

JOHN GRIEVE begs respectfully to intimate that, having purchased the Lease of the above Hotel, he has devoted considerable time and incurred a large outlay in the reconstruction and refurnishing of the Premises.

In making certain necessary Alterations, he has been careful to maintain the high character this House has always enjoyed as a Comfortable Residence for High-Class Families visiting Edinburgh; while he has added to his several Suites of Elegant Apartments a succession of Single Rooms, more especially available for the continually passing Tourist or Temporary Resident.

The KITCHENS are constructed by Messrs. Benham and Son of London, and possess every adaptation for the extensive requirements of elegant Modern Cookery.

The WINE CELLARS have been stocked from the best selections to be obtained from the Merchant and Shipping Houses, with whom John Grieve has been in business connection, to a good extent, for many years; and though aware of the difficulty of pleasing the British Public in this particular, he confidently refers to his newly-arranged Wine Carte, and to the modernized and moderate Prices therein quoted, from the 3s. bottle of Medoc Wine upwards.

The House is Furnished throughout in the best taste by Messrs. Jackson and Graham of London, and Messrs. Whytock and Co. of Edinburgh; and the Plate is supplied by Messrs. Elkington and Co. of Regent Street. Thus, having spared neither pains nor expense in his endeavour to deserve the public support for a House which should be one of the best in Scotland, John Grieve trusts he may rely upon a continuance of that encouragement which has hitherto attended his several enterprises, and which his experience of many years in catering for the Public, both in London and in Edinburgh, may perhaps entitle him to expect

REMOVALS CONTRACTED FOR BY ROAD AND RAIL.

RICHARD WHYTOCK & CO.'S Travelling Furniture Waggons are specially constructed to save expense in Packing and Carriage, to prevent Damage in transit, and to expedite the Removal of Household Furnishings and other valuable articles.

Goods, when carefully placed in these Waggons, which are expressly adapted for Travelling both by Road and Rail, remain undisturbed until they reach their destination, and are then delivered in the same condition in which they were despatched (by simply unloading), thus obviating the risk, trouble, and expense arising from the use of separate packages and their irregular transmission.

R. W. & Co. would call particular attention to the comparative Lightness of construction of their Furniture Waggons, as effecting a considerable saving in the cost of carriage, which is usually chargeable by weight. One of these Waggons has been recently built to order, of more moderate dimensions and of less weight, for the conveyance of smaller household effects.

Experienced Packers travel in charge throughout each journey.

Terms Estimated on given Particulars.

BUILDER AND ASPHALTER,
HOPE PARK END HOUSE, EDINBURGH,

RESPECTFULLY intimates that he executes every description of Asphalt, and is ready to furnish Estimates for the same, in Town or Country, on Moderate Terms.

ASPHALT FLOORING is highly recommended for Stables, Byres, Barns, Cattle Sheds, Granaries, Cottars' Houses, and all kinds of Farm Buildings, on account of its being the most effective preventative to the ascent and spread of Damp, its complete exclusion of Vermin, its neat and cleanly appearance, its durability and cheapness in comparison with other descriptions of flooring and pavement, and its healthy and disinfectant properties. While it effects a great saving, by the exclusion of rats and smaller vermin, owing to the close texture of the composition, without seam or joining, it keeps the Grain in a sweet state, from the entire absence of damp or moisture; and wherever the Asphalt Flooring has been used, it has fully realized all the benefits held out by its adoption.

"When the sun shines, be advised to carry an Umbrella; when it rains, do as you like."

"The value of a thing is best known by the want of it." This is especially true of an Umbrella.

AFFLICTED UMBRELLAS.

ILLUSTRIOUS WAYFARER,

Do you rejoice in the possession of an athletic Umbrella? Inasmuch as it is a provident investment, this is an important question. Or has the destroying hand of Time and usage reduced it to a condition of inutility and abandonment?—Is it dilapidated? Is it prostrate with a fractured rib, a dislocated neck, or a broken spine? Has any unexpounded calamity tended to debilitate its nerves, or paralyse its muscularia? Is it afflicted with a damaged crenated attachment, or a ruptured vericle convergentum? Has any visitation or paralysis arrested or destroyed the facile action of the motive power? Does there exist any manifestation of an abrasion, or inaccurate tension of the epidermis? Is the tippeous extension of the epidermis unimpaired in its attachment? Is the pedaneous extremity intact; or has prolonged attrition against terraceous substances reduced it to a state of stumpiferous deformity? Is the digitalial appendage without flaw or fracture? Is the occlude and expansive action uninterrupted? Is the octa-hegenous osseonsity insometrically angulated? Is its centrifugal rotundity deformed by depression, semicollapse, or protrusion? Is its polyhedral conformation correct? and its circumambient proportions adequate for personal conservation? Is it loaned, lost, levanted, misappropriated, or used up? Are its mineralogical, vegetable, and animal elements, still in combination? Or is it "ALL OVER WITH IT?"

Impassioned reader! if you are mentally embarrassed in the labyrinth of these inquiries; if your technical knowledge fails to recognise their logical applicability; suffice it, that for any contingency, ample provision is made at the far-famed

On 31st DECEMBER NEXT
 THE SCOTTISH WIDOWS' FUND

WILL DIVIDE AMONG THE POLICYHOLDERS

The whole Profit Accumulated in the Seven Years

WHICH WILL THEN TERMINATE.

THE PRESENT YEAR

Is therefore a time in which persons who desire to effect Assurances with the Society may do so under the most favourable circumstances. In the meantime, until the Valuation have been completed, nothing definite can be said as to the amount of the Divisible Surplus. But any one who will examine the Returns to the Board of Trade, and other documents contained in the larger publications (which may be had on application), cannot fail to see conclusive evidence that the most satisfactory results may be confidently anticipated. With every facility afforded to the Public for testing the position and merits of the Society, it is steadily advancing in favour, as appears from the transacted in the six years already past of the present Bonus Period, contrasted with that of the corresponding years of the preceding one.

AMOUNT OF NEW BUSINESS

PRECEDING PERIOD.		PRESENT PERIOD.
1860	£380,305	1867	£811,410
1861	374,599	1868	711,608

1864	876,349	1871	1,091,205
1865	1,045,497	1872	1,200,000

Total Increase in present Period, . . . £1,286,158

AS A PURELY MUTUAL OFFICE,

the resources of the Society are not burdened with the payment of dividends to shareholders. It reserves every farthing of its enormous Surplus for division among the Policyholders alone, who thus have the benefit of large sums which in Proprietary Offices are withdrawn from the divisible Fund.

Those who effect Assurances in this Society
 DURING THE YEAR

will be entitled to Share in the Profits to be Divided as at 31st December next.
